

Privacy Notice

Introduction

Carney Consultancy Ltd collects and processes information, and/or personal data, relating to its suppliers/clients to manage the working relationship. This personal information may be held by Carney Consultancy Ltd on paper or in electronic format.

Carney Consultancy Ltd is committed to being transparent about how it handles your information, to protecting the privacy and security of your information and to meeting its data protection obligations under the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) and the Data Protection Act 2018. The purpose of this privacy notice is to make you aware of how and why we will collect and use your information both during and after your working relationship with Carney Consultancy Ltd. We are required under the GDPR to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice. This privacy notice applies to all current and former suppliers/clients. It is non-contractual and does not form part of any other contract for services. Carney Consultancy Ltd has appointed a data controller to oversee compliance with this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice or about how we handle your information, please contact Angela Carney at Carney Consultancy Ltd.

Under the GDPR, there are six data protection principles that Carney Consultancy Ltd must comply with. These provide that the personal information we hold about you must be:

1. Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner.
2. Collected only for legitimate purposes that have been clearly explained to you and not further processed in a way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to those purposes.
4. Accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date.
5. Kept in a form which permits your identification for no longer than is necessary for those purposes.
6. Processed in a way that ensures appropriate security of the data.

Carney Consultancy Ltd is responsible for, and must be able to demonstrate compliance with, these principles. This is called accountability.

Where your data is held

Your personal data is held on secure servers operated by Carney Consultancy Ltd. We do not transfer your data outside the European Economic Area (EEA) and we comply with the protection offered to you under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Data Security

Personal data is collected and stored securely subject to stringent security measures and is protected against misuse.

The information we collect

The information we collect will depend entirely on our relationship with you as a client/supplier. We do not pass information to third parties in order to protect your confidentiality unless you have given consent for us to do so.

Access to your information (Your Rights)

You have the right to ask for a copy of the personal information Carney Consultancy Ltd holds about you and to correct any inaccuracies in that information.

- Right to fair processing of information and transparency over how we use your personal information – we are required to inform you why we want to gather your personal information, what we will do with it, who it will be shared with and how long it will be kept for. That information is set out in this privacy notice, but if you require any further information please don't hesitate to contact us.
- Right to request a copy of your information – you can request a copy of your information which we hold (this is known as a 'subject access request'). If you would like a copy of some or all of this information please contact us with proof of your identity and let us know what information you would like. We must provide this information to you in a commonly used and machine readable format.
- Right to require us to correct any mistakes in your information – you can require us to correct any information which we hold. If you would like to do this, please contact us to let us know the information that is incorrect and what it should be replaced with.
